Stephen A. Douglas Birthplace

We Invite You To Join Us In Celebrating
The History and Lives Of Early Brandon Residents

- Are you curious about the history of Brandon and her early residents?
- Are you interested in the early Vermont anti-slavery movement?
- Would you like to know more about the early years of Stephen A. Douglas, prominent 19th century American statesman?

The Brandon Museum features early photographs, Brandon artifacts, and fascinating stories about the lives and thoughts of early Vermonters. On display is an 1830s chest of drawers signed by young Douglas, a cabinet-maker's apprentice, which is a wonderful example of the fine craftsmanship of our earliest settlers.

We invite you to become a member of the Brandon Museum at the Stephen A. Douglas Birthplace. By doing so, you will be supporting the preservation of Brandon History.

This exciting building houses a Visitor Center, municipal restroom and is the home of the Brandon Museum. The building is available to be rented for private functions.

BRANDON MUSEUM at the Stephen A. Douglas Birthplace

The Douglas Birthplace had been owned by the Lake Dunmore Chapter Daughters of American Revolution for 90 years when it turned over ownership of the property to the Stephen A Douglas Birthplace Community Center, Inc., established in 2007. The 501C3 non-profit organization, affiliated with the Brandon Area Chamber of Commerce and the Lake Dunmore Chapter Daughters of American Revolution, spent two years turning the historic building into The Brandon Museum and Visitor Center. Join us by becoming a member of the Brandon Museum and support the preservation of Brandon history.
